If said business is moved to another town, it shall be necessary to secure a new license.

"Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any person employed by, or engaged in, a personal loan business, or for any person attempting directly or indirectly to collect an indebtedness growing out of a loan by a personal loan business, wilfully to cause an employee to be discharged from his employment, or to harass an employee on the premises of his employer, or to harass the employer of a borrower, or to go on the premises of the employer of a borrower in an attempt to collect an indebtedness as herein contemplated, except and unless where borrower lives or resides on his employer's premises; provided the holder of an assignment of wages may notify an employer of such assignment in case of default by the borrower.

"Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person to carry a pistol or other deadly weapon while attempting to collect a loan made by a personal loan office.

The fact that persons, firms, and corporations engaged in the personal loan business, in many instances, where loans have been made providing for the collection of interest in excess of the legal rate, said persons, firms, and corporations have resorted to tactics and practices in the collection of said loans and said unlawful interest which are injurious to the public welfare by harassing such borrowers in personal loan transactions, and by harassing the employers of said borrowers, and by effecting the discharge of borrowers and the loss of employment by said borrowers, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule which requires that bills be read on three several days in each House, and the constitutional rule requiring bills to go into effect ninety days from and after their passage be, and the same are, hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."
